Dear Ms. Dortch:

On July 11, 2012, Kathleen Abernathy of Frontier Communications, Eric Einhorn of Windstream Communications, Jeff Lanning of CenturyLink, Shirley Linn of FairPoint Communications, and Genny Morelli of ITTA, the Independent Telephone & Telecommunications Alliance, (collectively "Midsize Carriers") met with Commissioner Mignon Clyburn, Dave Grimaldi, Commissioner Clyburn's Chief of Staff and Media Legal Advisor, and Louis Peraertz, Commissioner Clyburn's Wireless, International, and Public Safety Legal Advisor. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss the Midsize Carriers' concerns with the pending applications in the above-captioned docket.

Specifically, the Midsize Carriers discussed the potential harms of the proposed transactions as outlined by the letter filed by ITTA in this docket. The Midsize Carriers urged Commissioner Clyburn to consider fully the positions expressed in ITTA's letter and take the steps necessary to prevent the competitive and public interest harms identified therein.

Please feel free to contact me with any further questions.
